Sub: Hon'ble Supreme Court Judgment regarding registration of birth of a child in case of single parent / unwed mother.

Sir,

Please refer this office letter of even number dated 21st July, 2015 vide which you were requested to issue necessary direction to the concerned registration functionaries for strict compliance of Hon'ble Supreme court direction issued on 6th July, 2015 regarding registration of birth of a child in case of single parent / unwed mother.

2. As you have already informed that Hon'ble Supreme Court in its Judgment stated that: "If a single parent/unwed mother apply for the issuance of a Birth Certificate for a child born from her womb, the Authorities concerned may only require her to furnish an affidavit to this effect, and must thereupon issue the Birth Certificate, unless there is a Court direction to the contrary". The court also directed that no citizen suffers any inconvenience or disadvantage merely because the parents fail or neglect to register the birth.

3. Taking into consideration the above direction, you are requested to issue the necessary direction to the concerned registration functionaries for strict compliance of the above direction and ensure that no one is denied birth registration of a child of Single parent /unwed mother. In such cases, the name of single parent will be written in the birth record and name of other parent will be left blank. This office may be appraised about the action taken in this regard.

Yours faithfully
